

Title	Credentials - Technologists	Policy #	04-002
--------------	-----------------------------	-----------------	--------

POLICY

All technologists must register with an AMA approved credentialing body in their respective specialties.

PURPOSE

To define the qualifications needed for technologists to be employed by the Division of Diagnostic Imaging and Radiology.

PROCEDURE

The national credentialing bodies recognized by the Division of Diagnostic Imaging and Radiology are as follows:

- The American Registry of Radiologic Technologists (radiography, nuclear medicine, CT, and MRI).
- Nuclear Medicine Technology Certification Board.
- The American Registry of Diagnostic Medical Sonographers.

At time of hire, the employee must present a current registration card. The Division of Diagnostic Imaging and Radiology will be responsible for primary source verification.

The credentials must be updated annually.
